

CAMPBELLFORD/SEYMOUR COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

a living legacy rooted in the community

Vision, Mission, Purpose and Values

The vision, mission, purpose and values are the four pillars of every organization. Together, they form the underlying motivations that guide organizations and their decision-makers to do the things they do.

Vision

We share a vision for our community that prospers through co-operation and partnerships, where philanthropy and volunteerism are part of daily life, and where organizations work together to address a full spectrum of community needs. We want to help create a caring and healthy community that encourages active participation in making Campbellford/Seymour the best place to live, work, learn and grow.

Mission

The mission of the Community Foundation is to:

1. Protect and grow the original endowment.
2. Build new endowments by engaging donors who want to invest in our community.
3. Provide broad and effective granting in Campbellford/Seymour.
4. Lead by example and foster community leadership.
5. Support municipal initiatives that promote our vision.
6. Sustain our foundation through responsible financial management.

Purpose

The Campbellford/Seymour Community Foundation (CSCF) has a threefold purpose:

Stewardship: To act as good stewards of the funds realized from the sale of the public utility and further bequests that may follow.

Leadership: To provide leadership in identifying community needs and opportunities to improve all citizens' quality of life.

Partnership: To work with community partners to fund and complete projects that will enhance the community of Campbellford/Seymour.

Values

The CSCF strives to live by our values each and every day by:

- Operating in an open and transparent manner
- Being responsive to community needs
- Participating actively in community partnerships
- Reflecting and respecting the diversity in our community
- Encouraging innovation
- Balancing short-term and long-term goals
- Adhering to the standards of professional and ethical practices for charities
